

Cyber Incident Report - Project Orion

Project Orion, a joint venture between OmniCorp and Dataflow AI, experienced a data breach. The breach was traced back to a compromised employee account belonging to Sarah Jenkins. It is suspected that the malware used in the breach originated from a server linked to Nexus Group.